Welcome to watch the DEAF EC top golf on the location at the Åland Klubb!

You don't need a ticket to watch the Championships, so you are able to watch it freely during the whole competition, including the practice days. This event is a unique chance for the non-golfers to have a first contact with this sport.

Mon 31.7. Official practice day, opening ceremony

Tue 1.8. 1st competition day

Wed 2.8. 2nd competition day

Thu 3.8. 3rd competition day, awards ceremony, closing ceremony

The watchers can freely follow the groups they want to by foot during the whole course or alternatively, sit nearby a certain hole to admire the performance of the top players.

You can ask for recommendations for the best or the most interesting locations from the information desk or the officials that are on the location guiding the audience.

Please note that the Kungsbanan course is reserved for the EC, and it will be open for the other players in the evening after the competition. The Slottsbanan course is open for all the players as usual.

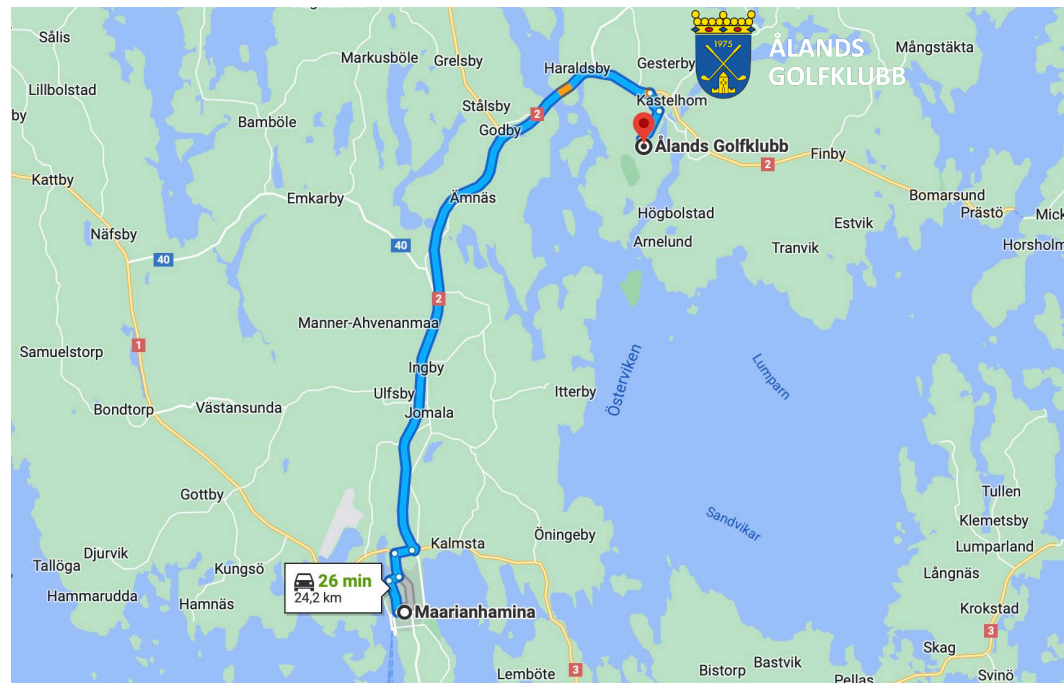

Practical tips

- When you arrive to the Åland Klubb area, you can get more information about this event from the golf club.
- You can ask volunteers about moving around the area and the service areas.
- With a QR code you can download the tee off times to your phone, and follow the competition and its results.
- You can follow your favorite players with their group, walking through the rough or alternatively choose one place where you can see multiple events simultaneously on multiple greens.
- A great option is for example the small maintenance building on the golf course that has a toilet and a drink vending machine. From this building you can easily follow four different greens.
- Binoculars are a great tool for watching events even from further away.
- Prepare for different weather circumstances - in addition to the sunscreen and the water bottle it would be a good idea to have good walking shoes, an umbrella and a shirt with long sleeves.
- Remember to move around carefully during the competition, out of the fairways. Please sign carefully, so you won't disturb the players' concentration.
